

Biomed. Cancer vocab and questions

Define:

Invasive ductal carcinoma, kaposi's sarcoma, invasive lobular carcinoma, carcinoma, hodgkins lymphoma, benign, malignant, neoplasm, in situ, myoma

Find the term:

1. The term that describes a serious system allergic reaction, in which the patient can die within minutes is _____.
2. In _____ radioactive materials are implanted into the tissues to be treated.
3. The _____ blot test is used to confirm a seropositive ELISA test for HIV.
4. A _____ is a benign abnormal collection of lymphatic vessels forming a mass.
5. Persistent generalized _____ is the continued presence of diffuse enlargement of lymph nodes.
6. Dr. Diaz diagnosed his patient as having an enlarged spleen. The medical term for this is _____.
7. Soon after breast cancer was diagnosed, Sarah's doctor performed a _____. In this procedure the tumor and margin of healthy tissue are removed.
8. Tara complained that the glands in her neck were swollen. Dr. Diaz explained that these are the _____ lymph nodes.
9. The term meaning inflammation of the thymus.
10. The terms meaning removal of the adenoids.
11. The term meaning a tumor originating in the thymus.

Breast cancer questions:

1. What is the cause of breast cancer?
2. What do the stages of breast cancer mean?
3. Can men get breast cancer too?
4. What are the chances of surviving?
5. Can breast cancer be inherited?
6. Does ethnicity play a role in breast cancer?
7. Is breast cancer easy to detect?
8. Does breast cancer mean you have to get your breast surgically removed?
9. How often should you get checked for breast cancer?
11. What is the relapse time for breast cancer?
12. Does age affect getting breast cancer?
13. What are the treatment options for breast cancer?
14. Can it be passed on to your children?
15. Does the risk go up if you smoke?
16. Does being active help prevent breast cancer?
17. Can eating healthier help lower the risk?
18. Can breast cancer spread?
19. Why do you lose your hair with chemotherapy?
20. What is the best treatment option?