

Consider this map of place names in southwestern Quebec.

(a) What is the geographer's term for "place-names"?

(b) What do these tell you about history, religion, and even landscape in Quebec?

(c) Where in the US might there be regions with similarly descriptive place names? Give some specific examples.