School Notes

As administrators we have the opportunity to sit down and have conversations with students on a daily basis. On one particular day, the conversation focused on the complexity of getting along with others. As a group, the students collectively came up with the 5 most important aspects of friendship listed below:

5. We should never keep score with our friends
4. Compliment your friends
3. Share with our friends
2. Be honest
1. Be nice and always care about the feelings of your friends.

As we move into the Holiday season and we spend additional time with our friends and family may you reflect on these wise words of our students. Happy Holidays.

Good things are happening at Buchanan Elementary!
