

Chinook by Sina

Where did they live? Where do the people live today? They lived in villages, but now they live in Washington.

What did they eat? They ate all animals near their home.

What did they wear? Men didn't wear much, but women wore skirts made out of cedar bark or grass.

What special ceremonies did they have? They had one called Potlatches.

What kind of homes did they build? They built wooden plank houses.

Interesting facts:

1. The Chinook used baskets to store fish and water.
2. The name Chinook's English pronunciation of a Salishan place named Tsinak.
3. Men and women of the Chinook gathered plants, herbs, and clams, and also did child care.
4. The chief was always a man but clan leaders could be either gender.