

Course Overview and Syllabus

Welcome to English II - Sophomore

Over the course of this year students will move towards the mastery of the Common Core standards in English Language Arts. In this course, students will read and analyze the following: non-fiction, poetry, novels, drama and essay. As an instructor, I will focus heavily on the common core standards that deal with reading comprehension, literary response and analysis, writing strategies, writing conventions, word analysis and vocabulary attainment. It is expected that you will complete all assigned work to the best of your abilities. In order to benefit from the course curriculum and best prepare you for life after high school, you must complete all assignments in full and on time. Ultimately, this better prepares students for the critical thinking that life requires. Please contact me any time you have questions or concerns. I am looking forward to a productive year.

Class Learning Objectives

Over the course of this year students will focus on the following learning objectives:

Writing across genres - expository, persuasive, narrative, and descriptive

Reading across genres - short story, poetry, prose, novel and non-fiction

Listening and Speaking - listening to multimedia and person to person experiences and using academic discourse to discuss reading and writing

Language - grammar and usage in academic discourse

Course Expectations

Netiquette

Netiquette is a set of guidelines for communicating respectfully online. The goal is to be kind, courteous, and respectful to everyone as we share our thoughts and opinions.

We have a diverse group of people from many linguistic backgrounds, political views, and cultures. Please be courteous of these differences in your posts and discussions. Keep all debates professional without personal attacks.

Use good taste when composing your responses in the chat room and discussion forums. Swearing, profanity, and slang are unprofessional in this classroom environment.

DON'T USE ALL CAPITAL LETTERS. Not only is it difficult to read, but it is viewed as aggressive and shouting.

Acronyms are fast ways to communicate with peers, but before you write it, define it. Write the meaning first, then put the abbreviation in parentheses afterward. After you define it, use it freely throughout your discussion.

Use proper grammar and spelling. In this professional environment, we do not use texting abbreviations.

Homework and Late Work Policy

Make-up Homework Policy:

When a student is absent from school, it is his/her responsibility to contact teachers upon returning to school regarding make-up work. When a student is absent they MUST email Mrs. Parsons to ensure they have communicated with her. The time allotted for making up missed work will vary depending on the circumstances surrounding the absence, the actual time out of school, and the teacher's classroom policy. Each student will make arrangements with their teachers for turning in this work. If a student is absent for three (3) days or more, the parent should email and request the work. Teachers will be given a 24 hour notice to provide make up work.

Assignments turned in after the due date will receive a 5% deduction per day it is late. Every six weeks there will be a final deadline and all assignments from that period will be closed the Friday before grades are due.

Cell Phone Policy

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT CELL PHONE/ELECTRONICS POLICY

Student use of cell phones, ear buds, and other electronics has become an increasingly negative disruption during classroom instruction, interfering with student learning and engagement.

In order to support and maintain an environment conducive to learning and engagement, cell phones, ear buds, and other electronics must be turned off and put away while class is in session (unless otherwise directed by the teacher for academic purposes).

Failure to comply with the cell phone/electronics directive may be considered "defiance" and result in behavioral consequences. Additionally, cell phones, ear buds, and other electronics may be confiscated by faculty and/or an administrator, and parental pickup may be required.

If you need to contact your child in case of an emergency, call the front office at (951) 894-5750.

Letter Grading

Letter grades will be assigned based on the number of points earned from assignments. See the conversion table below. Grades are weighted based on the following categories:

Writing 30% Reading 30% Listening and Speaking 20% Language 20%
