African-American Parent Advisory Council (AAPAC)

The mission of the African-American Parent Advisory Council (AAPAC) is to support the academic and social-emotional growth of African-American students.

Goals:

- Educate and inform parents of district resources, policies, and programs.
- Empower the lives of all African -American children and families by providing the knowledge and skills necessary to advocate for high-quality educational experiences.
- Encourage and support parents to engage with educators and administrators in positive partnership
- Celebrate African -American culture and traditions district-wide.
- Support cultural proficiency development and equitable practice.

Murrieta Valley USD AAPAC is part of the Riverside County African-American Achievement Initiative (RCAAAI)

Academic Support Opportunity

Students who would be first generation students to attend college can apply to a program called Avid

What is Avid?

Avid is an elective that assists students with their academics and organizational skills in middle school with the goal of every student transitioning successfully to high school. Avid provides a welcoming and supportive environment with a team dedicated to their success.

In high school, students receive help applying for financial aid and applying to college
