Good Morning Murrieta Valley USD Families,

We are happy to announce that we recently received approval from our state and federal nutrition partners to offer 'Grab n Go' weekly meals are now available to all enrolled students at no cost.

A student ID number will be still be required at the time of pick up. Students do not need to be present and parents may pick up meals on behalf of students.

Weekly meals are packaged for preparation at home and distributed every Thursday from 12:15 pm to 6:00 pm. Meal Packs will include a weeks' worth of breakfast and lunch for a (5 days).

Families may pick up meals from a single school site for all students in the family. Please visit www.murrietaschoolnutrition.com for more details such as; weekly menu.

If your family has not completed a nutrition survey and plans to use the services of Nutrition Services, please complete the quick 4 question survey below. Thank you!
