

Share Bags

Sharing is such an important time in Kindergarten. Not only is it a time for your child to feel special, but it is also a time for families to share precious moments together. A special bag will come home containing something to share with the family. The kindergartner is to draw and write about the experience with the item in the enclosed journal. Please return everything "the next day" as it is another child's turn to take it home.