+ SAT/ACT

- What about the SAT/ACT?

In light of Covid19, many colleges are announcing plans to shift their testing policies for the Class of 2021 and beyond.

“Does test optional really mean test optional?”

The answer, simply put, is: YES.

Check out www.fairtest.org for test optional schools.

- Check with your counselor to make sure you are on track to complete the required number of NCAA-approved courses
- Take the ACT or SAT and submit your scores directly to the NCAA Eligibility Center using code 9999
- At the end of the year, students should ask their counselor to upload official transcripts to the NCAA eligibility Center. If you took classes at more than one high school or program, ask each to submit an official transcript

+ FAFSA – Federal Aid

- Launch your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) from your student's California Colleges account
- FAFSA window to apply is Oct. 1, 2020 – March 2, 2021
 - Step 1: Student/Parent need an FSA ID
 - Step 2: Gather the following documents Social security #, Driver's License #, federal tax returns (2019), Cash, savings, and checking account balances. Details about investments, like stocks, bonds, business or farm assets, or real estate (except the home you live in). Records of some untaxed income, including child support, interest income (also known as dividends), and veterans noneducation benefits.
 - Step 3: Apply for FAFSA on Oct 1st!
- Sept 28-Oct 2, FAFSA Blitz Presentations in Gov't/Econ class (presented by counselors via video)
- Please stay tuned for parent workshops for assistance and FAFSA incentives!

Federal Aid

- Pell Grant—the main federal grant for students who need help paying for college. You can get up to $6,345 per year.
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant \(FSEOG\)—for students who need the most financial help. You can get up to $4,000 to go along with your Pell Grant.
- Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant—for students who lost a parent in Iraq or Afghanistan after 9/11. You can get the Pell Grant amount even if your income is too high.
- TEACH Grant—for students who plan to be teachers. You must agree to teach in a high-need field at a school that serves low-income students.
- Work-Study—work part-time while you go to college. Your job may relate to your major or focus on community service.
- Student Loans—borrow money for college if your other financial aid isn't enough. Federal loans are better than private loans.

+ Cal Grant – State Aid

■ How to Apply

- 1. Submit FAFSA or California Dream Act Application
- 2. VMHS has already electronically sent your Cal Grant GPA to the CSAC
- 3. After submitting your FAFSA or CADAA Create an Account at WebGrants4Students to check the status of your Cal Grant

■ Are you eligible for a Cal Grant?
