

Vocabulary Unit #1

1. A good judge must be dispassionate when he/she presides over a case, regardless of the crime. The judge cannot allow personal feelings to cloud his/her judgment.

synonyms: unemotional, objective

antonyms: biased, judgmental

2. The woman did not like the plain wedding dress. She wanted the seamstress to embellish the top of the dress with lace, pearls and rhinestones.

synonyms: garnish, decorate

antonyms: deface, disfigure

3. After spending a week at her mother's house and eating all of the chocolate chip cookies, Maria realized that she should supplant the supply in the cookie jar.

synonyms: supply, replace antonyms: no antonyms listed

Directions for each vocabulary unit are as follows:

1. Write or type the correct heading in the upper right-hand corner.
2. Your title should include the unit number.
3. For each vocabulary word, include one detailed sentence.
4. Italicize, underline or put the vocabulary word in bold print.
5. Include and highlight the context clue in each sentence. The context clue is included to help readers understand the meaning of the word.
6. For each vocabulary word, include two synonyms. These synonyms should be different from the ones listed on the document.
7. For each vocabulary word, include two antonyms. These antonyms should be different from the ones listed on the document. If there are no antonyms listed on the document, you do not have to provide any antonyms. If this is the case, write "no antonyms listed". (See #3 above as an example.)