Romeo and Juliet Act I, Scenes i-iii 1.) What is love? What is hate? Which one is stronger? Why? Give examples. 2.) Romeo and Juliet Act I, Scene 1 Examples of violence and sexual references Act I, scene i Textual Evidence Act I, scene i Character Traits Samson Gregory Abram Balthasar Benvolio Tybalt Montague Lady Montague Capulet Lady Capulet Prince

Romeo
WHAT IS THE AUTHOR'S PURPOSE IN	N IN STARTING THE PLAY IN THIS V	VAY?
-Exit Slip: Compare and contrast Act 1, (1474). How does this scene contrast wi In your Exit Slip be sure to:		ra degli Sposi's "The Wedding Chamber"
1. Base your argument on our reading from		on.
2. Cite at least two pieces of textual evi	dence to support your argument.
2) 0 14 17
3.) Read Act I, scenes ii-iii -What is each character's view on marri	age? (Paris, Lord Capulet, Lady Capulet,	Nurse, Juliet, Romeo, Benvolio)
Based on what you have read so far, who society? Why? How?	has the power, the individual or society	y? Which comes first, the individual or

-Exit Slip: In all this planning for her future, Juliet doesn't seem to have much of a say, quite literally! However, she must be thinking a lot. What do you imagine is going through her head during this scene? Write the inner monologue (her thoughts). Pay special attention to the following moments:

What is Juliet thinking when...

<ol> <li>Her mother first calls her and says they must "talk in secret"?</li> <li>Her mother asks her, "How stands your disposition to be married?"</li> <li>Her mother tells her that she was already married and pregnant at Juliet's age?</li> <li>Her mother tells her Paris wants to marry her?</li> <li>Her mother and the Nurse go on and on about how wonderful Paris is?</li> <li>Her mother finally asks Juliet if it's possible for her to love Paris.</li> <li>Juliet leaves to get ready for the party?</li> </ol>
4.) Zeffirelli vs. Shakespeare for 1.1, 1.2, and 1.3 -Does the film reflect Shakespeare's intent so far?
-What does the film reveals about the tension between individuals and society?