

Reproduction HW #2

Directions: Answer vocabulary on the ISN Page 91, and answer the questions on the space provided on this page.

Vocabulary:

Oogenesis	Ova (Ovum (sing.))	Anovulation	Speculum
1° Oocyte	Perineum	Pelvic Inflammatory Disease (PID)
Fimbriae	fimbriae	Vaginal Candidiasis	Tubal Ligation

1. a) Characterize the 3 layers of the uterus from superficial to deep. b) Which one of these layers is involved in contraction during active labor? c) Which of these layers will become an attachment point for the placenta during childbirth?

2. The terms Oophoritis and Ovariorrhexis are related to changes in the ovarian tissue. a) Compare and contrast these clinical variations in female health. b) List 3 causes that may lead to either of these conditions.

3. a) Define the term, "Amenorrhea". b) Under which 5 circumstances in woman's life might she encounter this condition?

4. a) What is a Papanicolaou Test? b) What is the test used for? c) How often should a women have this test done as part of regular reproductive health?