National College Resources Foundation and the Pomona Unified School District bring the 6th Annual Latino College Expo to The Village at Indian Hill in Pomona. This Expo brings the excitement of introducing High School students and their parents to a variety of Colleges/Universities/Trade Schools/and more under one roof.

Students can engage ONE-ON-ONE with all schools, attend informative seminars on "How to find Money for College", "FAFSA workshop", "Boomin' Careers", "REAL TALK", DACA and Dream Act, and more.

Scholarships will be offered On-The-Spot*!, Application Fees Waived*, and a variety of informative exhibitors will be in attendance to address all questions about college.

Translators will be available and most seminars will be Bilingual.

COME ENJOY A DAY OF EDUCATION and PREPARE OUR NEXT GENERATION FOR SUCCESS!

*does not apply to all colleges • All students must bring SAT/ACT scores and transcripts
