

Classroom Management Plan

“Character is doing the right thing, even when no one is watching.”

Code of Conduct: I will be trust worthy. I will be respectful. I will be responsible. I will be fair. I will be caring. I will be a good citizen.

IF YOU CHOOSE TO BREAK THE CODE AND OUR PROMISE TO EACH OTHER:

Students will start each day with a ticket, simply for showing up and being on time. They will earn more tickets or lose tickets, based on their behavior in class. Tickets will be used to purchase items once a month.

Students will start the day on “Ready to Learn” (Green). They will begin the day with a ticket.

First Warning: Caution: Yellow “Think About It.” Students will receive a verbal warning.

Second Warning: Stop and make a change “Teacher’s Choice” (orange). Student will lose their ticket. They may be asked to move their seat or go to the floor workspace.

Third Time: Red: “Oh No! Stop!” (RED) Student may be asked to write a note to their parent explaining their behavior. I will add my comments to the behavior page and require a signature. Student may also be asked to go to an alternate learning environment (another classroom). They will be charged two tickets for the day.

Fourth Time: Severe Disruption: Some behaviors may require that administration get involved. If it gets to this point, consequences will be handled by administration. We may need to have a parent/teacher meeting.

Students will begin their day on Green. If they make positive choices, they will be rewarded with the following: Praise, Extra tickets, Student of the Week Award, Super Coupons (students will be entered in a drawing for homework passes).

Students will be required to fill out their behavior charts, daily. I am going to ask that they keep them in their homework binders throughout the week. They will take them home on Friday. Please make sure to sign your initials and return on the following Monday. Students that do not return their behavior chart for the previous week will miss out on a ticket until their chart is returned signed.