MEETINGS

4334

Management personnel are authorized to call and conduct such meetings of the staff as are necessary to conduct properly the business of the school District.

Staff members shall attend meetings called by the Superintendent or designee, principals, District administrators and department heads, except those meeting designated as optional.

Legitimate reasons for absence from meetings shall be essentially the same as those allowed for absence from regular duty.

Meetings of the staff members may be held before school in the morning, during the school day, or following the dismissal of classes in the afternoon. There shall be the least possible interference with the classroom activities of teachers and students in scheduling meetings.
