2. Direct and supervise each aide.
3. Provide guidance for each aide.
4. Determine specific duties to be undertaken.
5. Work cooperatively with others in charge of the programs.

TEACHER AIDES/PARAPROFESSIONALS (continued)Responsibilities of Paraprofessional Aides

Paraprofessionals must be members of a professional team dedicated to working for the best interests of students. All members of the team are expected to be loyal, courteous, cooperative, industrious, and dependable. They must accept responsibility to act with the highest ethical standards as they share with educators the common purpose of educating students, because the commitment is a professional one.

Responsibility to the Student

Responsibility to the student imposes the following obligations:

1. Assuring the school that any personal information about the student will remain confidential.
2. Enjoying the working relationships with students and valuing their achievements, however modest they may be.

Responsibility to the Paraprofessional Programs

Responsibility to the program imposes the following obligations:

1. Being able to accept differences in people, values, standards, goals, ambitions, and having respect for individual integrity.
2. Maintaining consistent and regular attendance.
3. Being reliable and flexible.
4. Having sufficient sense of organizational procedures to be able to accept discipline while working happily within the established structure and policies of the school.
5. Being willing to acquire skills needed to be of value to the school programs.
6. Discussing any specific problems with the supervising staff member or the principal.
7. Using discretion in commenting on school matters, including the performance of individual paraprofessionals or other school personnel.

Responsibility to the School

The responsibility to the school imposes the following obligations:

1. Recognition that the professional staff will specify the tasks aides will perform, the authority aides will be given, and the information and materials aides will use.
2. Acknowledging that criticism of school personnel and/or school practices is an ineffective and unsatisfactory method of improving public education.
3. Understanding that regulations and procedures of the school are to be followed at all times.

Responsibility to Self

Responsibility to self requires each paraprofessional to:

1. Maintain positive attitudes.
2. Accept the responsibility to help all students develop positive self-esteem.
3. Be responsible for his/her own actions.
4. Know his/her role and be able to express what that role is to the community in a positive manner.
5. Maintain personal cleanliness.
6. Wear appropriate clothing (avoiding extremes).
7. Use appropriate language.
8. Give full cooperation to the total school staff.
