

The Incredible Years™

Parents, teachers, and children training series

The Incredible Years is a workshop focused on strengthening parenting skills to promote children's academic and social competencies and reduce problematic behaviors. This workshop will help parents learn about the importance of play, praise, reward charts, and various positive discipline strategies. Parents can earn prizes for participation and will have the opportunity to connect with other parents. The workshop is available for parents with children from birth-5 years of age who live in Riverside County.
