Under no conditions should you provide your classroom’s password to another person without teacher permission. You will immediately notify a teacher, the system administrator, or designee if you have identified a possible security problem. Do not search for security problems, because it may be construed as an illegal attempt to gain access. You will avoid the inadvertent spread of computer viruses by following the District virus protection procedures when downloading software.

Inappropriate Language:

Restrictions against inappropriate language apply to public messages, private messages and material posted on Web pages. You will not use obscene, profane, lewd, vulgar, rude, inflammatory, threatening, or disrespectful language. You will not post information that could cause damage or a danger of disruption. _____ Respecting Resource Limits:

You will use the system only for educational and career development activities. Teacher approval is required to download all files. You will not post chain letters or engage in “spamming”. Spamming is sending an annoying or unnecessary message to a large number of people. The District supports the legal, ethical and appropriate downloading of multimedia files for educational purposes. The District reserves the right to monitor on-line communications for improper use.

_____ Plagiarism and Copyright Infringement:

You will not plagiarize works that you find on the Internet. Plagiarism is taking the ideas or writing of others and presenting them as if they were yours. You will respect the rights of copyright owners. Copyright infringement occurs when you inappropriately reproduce a work that is protected by a copyright. If a work contains language that specifies appropriate use of that work, you should follow the expressed requirements. If you are unsure whether or not you can use a work, you should request written permission from the copyright owner.

_____ Access of Inappropriate Material:

You will not use the District’s system to access material that is inappropriate for educational purposes, that advocates illegal acts, or that advocates violence or discrimination towards other people (hate literature). If you mistakenly access inappropriate information, you should immediately tell your teacher or another District employee. This will protect you against a claim that you have intentionally violated this policy. Your parents should instruct you if there is additional material that they think it would be inappropriate for you to access. The District fully expects that you will follow your parent’s instructions in this matter.

_____ Ownership:

The District owns the computers in the schools and retains the rights to view material on all District computers. There should be no expectation of privacy on any District computer. Stealing, or attempting to steal school property or private property including but not limited to electronic files, databases, or other related information may result in a suspension or expulsion from school.

The District will not be responsible for any damage you may suffer, including but not limited to, loss of data or interruptions of the service. The District is not responsible for the accuracy or quality of the information obtained through or stored on the system. The District will not be responsible for the financial obligations arising through the unauthorized use of the system. The District provides a filter which blocks materials not suited for educational purposes. The understanding of this, and all filtering systems, however, is that they are not foolproof and the responsibility is on the user to follow school and District rules.
