Monarch Military Spotlight

The
Martin
Family

Our military spotlight family this week is the Martin Family; Mike, Elena, Michael and Mia. Mia is a student at Lisa J. Mails. Her father has served in the United States Marine Corps for 28 years! He is currently a Master Gunnery Sergeant. Their family has lived in many places to include Renton - WA, Quantico - VA, Okinawa - Japan and Camp Pendleton - CA. Mia's favorite memory of being a military family is the amazing friends who become family and getting to see different places in the world. The Martin family would like us to know that, "Being a military child is hard, because you always leave friends behind, but it's also beautiful because you have friends all over the world." Their family motto is "First God and family." Thank you, Martin Family, for your service and sacrifice to our country!
