NEWSLETTER

kindergarten

I can't even begin to tell you how much I miss all the sweet kindergarten faces and being able to teach them how to read and write each day. I want to provide resources and activities that will help your child make progress while not overwhelming them during this already confusing and stressful time. This newsletter will contain clickable links to activities, as well as other ways for your child to practice what we've already learned. New activities will be added to the newsletter each week.

FREE APPS

EPIC BOOKS

This site has tons of books available for your child to read OR be read to them. Have your child select Lexile level BR 210-BR50 when selecting books.

Your child has already been enrolled in Epic books.

1. Log on to www.getepic.com/students
2. Log in with your class account: ebw5896
3. Select your name and you're in!

Brainpop Jr.

This amazing app/Computer Web Site is free for students during this time.

1. Have your child log on to <https://jr.brainpop.com/>
2. The login is up in the right-hand corner.
Username: melissawaroff
Password: monarchs1
3. In the top left-hand corner is an orange robot head and you can click on it to scroll down to find brainpopjr. Have fun exploring!

COMPUTER

Decodable Readers

This site has small books for our kindergarten readers. Under each book is a homework button with great practice activities.

Please have your child select readers from the Emergent Readers Series-Part 1: CVC and CVCC books and Part 2

Teach Your Monster to Read

1. Log on to

<http://www.teachyourmonstertoread.com/u/5168175>

2. Have your child enter their first name ONLY.

3. Kinders may start at Level 1 or Level 2. Have fun!

Sight Word Slides Practice

If you have access to a google drive account, here are over 200 sight words on slides for your child to practice.

WANT PAPER?

Here are some printable activities that go with the Decodable Readers. Printable Activities

At this time, I recommend daily practice with reading a book, a phonics focus, and sight word review and games. These activities will continue to help your child develop their reading skills.
