

RED OCTOPUS

by JACOB

What kind of animal is it? Red Octopus

Where does it live? At the bottom of the sea.

How big does it get? Up to 20 inches.

What does it eat? Its favorite is crab. What eats it? Bass, rockfish.

How are babies born? They hatch. Who takes care of them? No one takes care of them.

1. An octopus can lay 3,000 eggs.
2. A red Octopuses usual color is red or reddish brownish.
3. A Red Octopus is a smaller version of a giant sea octopus.
4. The Red Octopus is mostly nocturnal.
5. Red Octopuses don't seem to like each other.