

Wampanoag Tribe

by Cassidy

My Indian tribe is the Thanksgiving tribe! The Wampanoag tribe used animal skins and feathers to make clothes. They speak they're own language, Algonquin. The Wampanoag tribe lived most closely to the pilgrims when they landed at Plymouth in the 1600's! They are widely known for their clay, pottery and crafts!

Wampanoag tribe question and answers!

Where did the tribe live where do they live now? They lived and live in SE Massachusetts and Rhode Island!

What did they eat? Corn, beans, squash, pineapple, tomatoes, wild rice and potatoes!

What did they wear? The women wore knee length skirts and men wore breath clothes with leggings they also wore headbands and the chief might wear a single feather in the headband.

What special ceremonies did they have? Thanksgiving, Harvest ceremony, and a signing ceremony!

What homes did they build? Small round houses called Wetus or Wigwams, 8 to 10 feet tall, wooden frames that are covered with woven mats and sheets of birch bark usually shaped like a dome!