

Why is having enough life insurance protection important?

Because you'd want your loved ones to be able to meet financial obligations if something should happen to you prematurely.

If you have a spouse/domestic partner and/or children, they may rely on you to help keep the household running. As many as 132 million Americans rely on life insurance to protect their financial security.¹ It is important to take steps to make sure your family would be financially prepared if you were no longer there to handle expenses like:

- Mortgage or rent payments
- Insurance premiums
- Transportation
- Utilities
- Food
- Child care/education fees

Help ensure that if something unforeseen should happen, short and long term financial obligations could be met.

Covering everyday living expenses and household bills is just one part of the life insurance equation. With life insurance ownership so low, many families would probably have trouble keeping up with longer term expenses like:

- College tuition
- Wedding expenses
- Child or aging parent care
- Retirement

It's also important to consider life events that could cause you to need more protection as your financial commitments and lifestyle change. Getting married, having children, buying a home — these are all events that could call for adding more life insurance protection to your portfolio.

It pays to think about how your family would cope financially if an accident took your life prematurely.

- There are more than 180,000 deaths from injury each year, 1 person every 3 minutes.³
- Injuries are the leading cause of death for people ages 1 to 44 in the U.S.³

This plan may also include access to MetLife AdvantagesSM — a comprehensive suite of valuable services for support, planning and protection needs, such as:

Will Preparation Services² Offers you and your spouse/domestic partner face-to-face meetings with an attorney to prepare your will, or to review and modify an existing will, and other estate documents

MetLife Estate Resolution Services² Estate representatives and beneficiaries may receive face-to-face legal assistance with probating your estate and your spouse's/domestic partner's estate. Beneficiaries can also consult a participating plan attorney for general questions about the probate process.

These services are included in your plan at no additional cost to you!

Get more insurance on your life by adding accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) insurance.

This extra protection can help provide financial security should a sudden accident take your life or cause you serious loss or harm.
