

Preparing the Child for the Road....

Murrieta Mesa High School presents:
College Preparation Information Sessions for Murrieta Mesa High School Seniors and Their Families.

What is Bootcamp? Bootcamp consists of eight intensive 3-hour sessions taught by College Applications Educator, Cecilia E. Johnston.

These sessions cover all aspects of the college application process, including organization, college choice strategies, college and scholarship applications, essay guidance and review, college admissions offers and financial aid. The sessions are timed to coincide with various application dates related to college applications, financial aid, scholarships, etc.

Who is it for? High School Seniors and their family. Student and Parent attend together.

Where is it? MMHS GPAC (Performing Arts Center) - 8/27 & 28, 9/11, 9/25 and 1/22
MMHS Library - 10/16, 11/13 and 3/25

How much does it cost? No cost to MMHS participants, made possible through funding from Growing Inland Achievement (GIA). GIA's goal is to increase the number of students receiving a baccalaureate degree in six years

"The workshops were awesome!
There were so many topics I would've never been able to fully educate myself on without these boot camp sessions."
