4. Shown here are a map of the movement of guest workers and a photograph of two such workers in Germany.

A. Define “guest worker.”

B. Consider the geographic characteristics of guest workers.
   i. Identify predominant sending and receiving regions involved.
   ii. Identify the push and pull factors which are operating in those regions.

C. Identify and discuss the economic, social, and/or demographic effects of guest workers
   i. in the countries they have left.
   ii. in the countries to which they move.