Explanation of Judging Categories

These are the things that the judges will be looking for:

Originality: The act is original in the sense that it will hold the audience's attention because they have not seen a similar act. The performance is uncommon and unique.

Stage Presence: The performer engages the audience and shows personality. The performer smiles and makes eye contact. The performer fills up the stage by moving around and stopping in different places. The performer projects and articulates so that the whole audience can hear and understand what is being said or sung.

Costume/props: The performer wears clothes that are appropriate to the performance. The costumes are eye-catching. Props are used to enhance the visual performance.

Adherence to guidelines: The performance is appropriate in style, dress and language. It is four minutes or less. (It will be timed) There was no lip syncing.

Overall Quality of the performance: The performance was enjoyable to watch, it didn't seem too long, and it showed true talent.
