Communications

Superintendent Kelley reported that this past month he visited many classrooms and is thankful and pleased with the quality of what is occurring inside and outside of the classroom. He indicated that Murrieta Mesa High School's choir performance is a reminder of how the school has come into its own through athletics, activities and the arts, and added that he can say the same for Creekside High School. He noted that we are entering a tough time of the year preparing for graduations and promotions, as well as getting ready for next year. Mr. Kelley said that he is thankful for being part of the Murrieta Valley Unified School District.

Board Communications

Trustee Barbara Muir gave kudos to students involved in Rotary's Interact Club which recently hosted with the City, the annual dinner dance for 140 special needs adults. She also praised the high schools for the diverse student activities taking place.

Trustee Robin Crist congratulated Amy Sexton for receiving an Inspiring Student Award and thanked for her care and compassion. She also thanked Jennifer Counts, Thompson Middle School teacher, for organizing Spelling Bee. She reminded everyone that the Murrieta High Schools Scholarship Foundation will present scholarships to students on April 22, 6:00 p.m. at Christian Revival Fellowship Church. She announced that the winners of Mr. Bronco, Mr. Nighthawk and Mr. Mesa will compete in the Mr. Murrtown competition on April 10 at Murrieta Mesa High School; funds raised to benefit the Scholarship Foundation.

Trustee Paul Diffley reported attending the Economic Forecast workshop hosted by Riverside County Office of Education. He remarked that he enjoyed visiting Murrieta Mesa High School's English, Science and Music departments where students were engaged in some very exciting projects. Mr. Diffley said that he looks forward to visiting Vista Murrieta High School and Murrieta Valley High School, as well as the elementary schools.

Trustee Kris Thomasian referred to the Spelling Bee and said that she is continually awestruck by the ability of our students. She stopped in at E. Hale Curran Elementary School's "Family Math Night" and was pleased by the number of families that attended. Ms. Thomasian commented that only one parent showed up for the Home-to-School Safety Training program and is seeking input on ideas for recruiting parents. In closing, she praised elementary and middle school staff for laying the foundation for students to excel in high school.
