MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Bronco Families,

Spring is in the air, and with this beautiful weather comes a renewed energy across campus!

It's a great time to remind our students to continue dressing for success. While we all love to soak in the sunshine, please remember that we are in school — and the district dress code still applies. Let's keep it classy and appropriate, Broncos.

We are so proud of the effort and focus of our junior class as we are in the final stretch of State Testing. Thank you for staying the course and demonstrating your knowledge.

A special shoutout to our seniors who received their caps and gowns on Wednesday — what an exciting milestone as we move closer to graduation. Additionally, all senior students recently met with their counselors for advisement regarding graduation and next steps beyond high school. Whether they're college-bound, joining the workforce, or exploring other opportunities, our Broncos are preparing for bright futures.

Before Spring Break, our juniors completed their Junior Reflective Tasks (JRT). These have now been scored and represent another important graduation requirement. If any student still needs to complete the JRT or the Senior Culminating Project, now is the time to act.

Seniors, a quick reminder that community service hours are due now and can be submitted to the Counseling Offices in either East or West Hall.

For Juniors and Seniors interested in attending prom: students on the no-go list due to grades must improve their academic standing before they can purchase a ticket. Grades will be checked prior to the event, so please stay on top of your work — we want to see everyone there!

Looking ahead, we're proud to host our third and final blood drive of the year on Tuesday, April 15th. Students who are 18 or older are eligible to donate. Thank you to our school and community for continuing to give back in such a meaningful way.

As always, thank you for being such an incredible part of the Bronco family. We wish everyone a wonderful weekend and look forward to welcoming you back to The Ranch Monday morning!

With Bronco Pride,

Mrs. Scallion
