

a new note...D

- Cover the second hole with your left middle finger.
- Be sure that the thumb hole is open.
- Sit up straight, with your feet on the floor.
- Take a natural breath and softly play D and hold it.
- Play D several times, and then practice moving back and forth from D to the other notes you know.

finger breakers

The following exercises will help you learn the new note D. Start by playing each one slowly and smoothly. As you gain confidence, gradually increase your speed.

1 2

3 4

shadows fall

SEVUSH-ORMONT