Riley Broe, Sarah Davis, Kyrstin Finnegan, Ernest Pagulayan, Robert Glaser and Joe Botto each spoke in support of Murrieta Valley Unified School District providing a marksmanship range to the Murrieta Valley High School JROTC program.

Lucky Harutunian commented on school security measures.

b. Employee Organizations Communication

Representatives from employee organizations were not present.

c. Deputy Superintendent Communication

Deputy Superintendent Darren Daniel thanked the community members for attending the meeting. He shared his appreciation for Murrieta Educators' Association and the California School Employees Association for reaching agreements early on in the negotiating process. Mr. Daniel thanked Jon Pratt, James Whittington, Steve Ellis, Miguel Mendoza, Craig Frame, Nadia Zeien, Leigh Lockwood and Keri Baldrige for their assistance with the District Leadership training that was held at the District Office.

d. Board Member Communication

Board member Ellen Larson thanked the speakers for expressing their passion for the JROTC program. She reported that the district had been accepted to the Community Engagement Initiative Peer Leading and Learning Network Cohort through June 2024. Mrs. Larson reported attending her first high school graduation ceremony in her official capacity as a School Board member, commenting on how remarkable Vista Murrieta High School's graduation ceremony was this year.

Board member Paul Diffley thanked the speakers for sharing their comments and spoke about the importance of ROTC programs in preparing students for college. Mr. Diffley said attending the Murrieta Mesa High School graduation ceremony this year was a wonderful experience.

Board member Linda Lunn thanked the community members and students for sharing their comments. Mrs. Lunn said the Board will be receiving an update in the fall regarding campus security. She expressed excitement about being able to participate in the many culminating events at the end of this school year.

Board member Takesha Cooper thanked the parents and students for speaking. Dr. Cooper reported attending her first graduation ceremonies at Murrieta Canyon Academy and Murrieta Valley High School in her official capacity as a School Board member. She said the Induction Colloquium was a rewarding and inspiring event to attend.

Board member Kris Thomasian said that shadowing the site secretary at Dorothy McElhinny as a part of CSEA's job shadowing program was quite an eye-opening experience and that it brought to light the dedication district employees bring to their worksites daily. Mrs. Thomasian said she will continue to watch the progress of the transportation bill moving through the State Senate and Assembly.
