Practice & Tournament Attendance Policy

Practices: Wrestlers are required to attend all practices and home tournaments and matches unless excused by the coach. This includes during holiday breaks. Freshmen will need to contact Coach Jarrett about previously planned vacations.

- Excused absences need to be by phone, email, or in person before the practice or event
 - Wrestlers who miss practice will be required to complete extra conditioning after the next practice as a make up for missed workouts to maintain conditioning
 - Wrestlers who miss practice may also lose their starting position for that weeks' competition.
- Unexcused absences are unacceptable and will result in the following:
 - The wrestler will be ineligible for all competition that week.
 - The wrestler will complete extra conditioning for 2 straight days as make up for the missed workout, before they are eligible to compete.
 - If a wrestler has more than 4 unexcused absences during the season, they will be removed from the team.

Not dressing out is considered an unexcused absence since the wrestler will not be able to participate.

Victory through dedication, discipline, intensity, and determination
