

FRANKENSTEIN: WRITTEN RESPONSE NATURE VS. NURTURE 25 PTS.
EXTRA CREDIT

The nature versus nurture debates concern the relative importance of an individual's innate qualities ("nature") versus personal experiences ("nurture") in determining or causing individual differences in physical and behavioral traits. Use Frankenstein, "The Case Against Perfection", and "Bioethics" and the article on Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs at <http://www.simplypsychology.org/maslow.html>. Here are a couple quotes to help get you started...

- Giving humans the choice to choose regarding genetic predisposition actually takes rights away from that unborn child
- It's only human nature to push to be the best, especially regarding technology.

Your response to the prompt needs to be a minimum of 1,000 words (approximately 3-4 pages). Essay must be typed adhering to MLA standards, include a minimum of (8) citations and a works cited page. (make sure to properly cite your sources, the 2 articles I provided for you are online periodicals)
